

Table of Contents

Béatrice Métraux

Introduction	15
1. Background, Parameters and Framework	17
1.1. Background	17
1.2. The Parameters of this Study	18
The Colloquium	18
The Work	19
1.3. Framework	21
Exclusions	21
Constraints.....	21
Bibliography.....	21
2. Historical Context	22
2.1. The Topic in its Historical Context.....	22
What of Religion?	22
How Did People Gamble?.....	23
Where Did People Gamble?.....	24
Lotteries.....	25
The New World.....	25
2.2. And Now?	27
How Big is the Market for Online Gambling?	28

Alberto M. Aronovitz

Administrative Requirements to Run a Virtual Casino: The Place and Dimensions of E-Licensing	31
1. General – the Path from Land-Based Casinos to Virtual Casinos	33
1.1. Land-Based Casinos.....	33
1.2. Virtual Casinos.....	34
2. Attitudes Adopted by States with Respect to the Phenomenon of E-Gaming	35
2.1. Legislative Inactivity: the Lack of Specific Regulation.....	35
2.1.1. The Possibility of Operating E-Gaming Sites by Taking Advantage of the Absence of Express Prohibitions – General Observations	36
2.1.2. Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	37
2.2. Possibility of Operating E-Gaming Sites on the Basis of Existing Legislation which Was not Originally Conceived for this Aim – General Observations.....	41
2.2.1. Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	41

3.	Countries that Regulate E-Gaming: the Target of Regulation and the Linkage between Licensing and Responsible Gaming	43
3.1.	A Note on Total Prohibition.....	43
3.2.	Countries that Regulate E-Gaming – General Observations.....	43
3.2.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	45
4.	The Legal Nature of E-Gaming Licenses – General Observations	47
4.1.	Countries that Adopt a System of Quotas for Available Licenses.....	49
4.2.	Conditions for the Attribution of Licenses.....	50
4.2.1.	Legal Capacity: Persons and Entities Allowed to be Granted a License	51
4.2.1.1.	Commercial Corporations and Individuals	51
4.2.1.2.	Commercial Corporations	53
4.2.1.3.	Public and Charitable Organizations and Institutions.....	55
4.2.1.4.	Private Charitable Entities.....	56
4.2.2.	Requirements of Residence and Local Presence – General Observations.....	57
4.2.2.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	58
4.2.3.	Quality of the Gaming Equipment and Reliability of the Games – General Observations	60
4.2.3.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	61
4.2.4.	Requirements of Probity and Fairness and Restrictions Imposed for the Licensing of Virtual Casinos – General Observations.....	64
4.2.4.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	65
4.3.	Cost of the Application License and Annual Fees – General Remarks	73
4.3.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	73
4.4.	Guarantees Required by the State to Insure the Operator's Compliance with his Obligations – General Observations	76
4.4.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	76
4.5.	The Authority in Charge of Granting E-Gaming Licenses – General Observations	78
4.5.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	79
4.6.	Settlement of Disputes Concerning the Process of Awarding the Licenses – General Observations	82
4.6.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	83
5.	The Relationship between Licensing, Control of Players and/or Player Protection – General Observations	87
5.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	88
6.	Withdrawal or Suspension of License – General Observations	89
6.1.	Overview of Selected Jurisdictions.....	90
7.	Conclusions	95
	A. States	95
	B. Operators	98
	C. Service Providers.....	98

Eva Schriever

Conflict and Coordination between Diverse Regulatory Environments	101
1. Introduction	103
2. Classification of Different Existing Legislative Models	104
2.1. Prohibitive Systems.....	105
2.1.1. Totally Prohibitive Jurisdictions	105
a. Characteristics	105
b. Examples	105
2.1.2. Protectionist Prohibitive Systems	109
a. Definitions	109
b. Examples	110
2.2. Liberal Systems	115
2.2.1. Completely Liberal Systems	115
a. Characteristics	115
b. Examples	115
2.2.2. Restrictive Liberal Jurisdictions.....	118
a. Definition.....	118
b. Examples	118
2.3. Liberal Prohibitive Systems	121
2.3.1. Characteristics	121
2.3.2. Examples	121
2.4. Concluding Remarks	124
3. Coexistence of Different Systems: Selected Cross-Border Issues	125
3.1. Prevention of Incoming Offers: “Defence Mechanisms”	125
3.1.1. Prevention of Incoming Offers: Possible Subjects of Regulation.....	126
3.1.2. Prevention of Incoming Offers: Measures against Foreign Gambling Operators and Intermediaries	126
a. Extraterritorial Applicability of National Law	127
b. Enforcement	130
c. Conclusion.....	131
3.1.3. Prevention of Incoming Offers: Measures against Domestic Entities	132
a. Internet Service Provider.....	132
b. Financial Service Providers.....	134
c. Advertisers.....	135
d. Players	137
3.1.4. Concluding Remarks	138
3.2. Policy of Respect – Restriction of Outgoing Offers	138
4. Conclusion	141

Sofie M.F. Geeroms

Cross-Border Gambling on the Internet under the WTO/GATS and EC Rules Compared: A Justified Restriction on the Freedom to Provide Services?	143
General Introduction	145
1. Trade in Services	146
1.1. The International Perspective: The WTO/GATS Approach.....	146
1.1.1. The United Nations Central Product Classification System	146
1.1.2. The WTO/GATS System: Defining Trade in Services.....	147
1.1.3. Technological Neutrality of the GATS	148
1.1.4. Gambling on the Internet Qualified as a Cross-Border Supply Service	149
1.2. A Regional Perspective: The European Community Approach.....	149
1.2.1. The EC Treaty: Defining Services	149
1.2.2. The Case Law of the European Court of Justice: Gambling Qualified as a Service.....	150
a) The Schindler Case of 24 March 1994.....	150
b) The Läärä Case of 21 September 1999	151
c) The Gambelli case of 6 November 2003.....	151
1.2.3. Technological Neutrality of the European Community Rules.....	152
Conclusion.....	153
2. Restrictions on the Freedom to Provide Services	154
2.1. The WTO/GATS Restrictions.....	154
2.1.1. General Principle: Progressive Liberalization of Services.....	154
a) Most Favoured Nation Treatment and Transparency	154
b) Market Access and National Treatment Commitments	155
c) Further Negotiations	155
2.1.2. Restrictions on the Liberalization of Services.....	156
a) General Exceptions	156
b) Most Favoured Nation Treatment Exceptions	157
c) Sectoral Market Access and National Treatment Commitments Restrictions	157
d) Other Restrictions	159
2.2. EC Restrictions.....	160
2.2.1. General Principle: Freedom to Provide Services	160
a) Primary Law.....	160
b) The 1998 Information Society Services Directive.....	161
2.2.2. Restrictions on the Freedom to Provide Services.....	162
a) Primary Law.....	162
b) Case Law.....	162
c) Secondary law	176
General Conclusion	179

Andrea Bonomi

Litigation Arising from the Non-Payment of E-Gambling Debts	181
1. Introductory Remarks	183
2. Invalidity or Unenforceability of Gambling Debts	185
2.1. General Remarks on the Notions of Invalidity and Unenforceability.....	185
2.2. Unenforceability of Illegally Contracted Gambling Contracts	187
2.3. Unenforceability of All Gambling Contracts	189
2.4. Enforceability of Loans Made in Respect of Gambling.....	192
2.5. Application of these Rules to Online Gambling	194
3. Private International Law Issues	195
3.1. General Remarks	195
3.2. A Preliminary Question: Is the Gambling Contract a Consumer Contract?	196
3.3. Jurisdiction in E-Gambling Cases	197
3.3.1. Proceedings Brought Against the Gambler	197
a) Proceedings in the State of the Gambler	197
b) Proceedings in the State of the Plaintiff (E-Casino or Financial Institution)	198
3.3.2. Proceedings Brought by the Gambler Against the E-Casino	200
3.4. The Law Applicable to E-Gambling Contracts.....	202
3.4.1. Law Applicable in some European States (European Union and Switzerland)	203
a) Party Autonomy.....	203
b) Law Applicable in the Absence of the Parties' Choice.....	204
3.4.2. The Law Applicable in the United States	209
a) Party Autonomy.....	209
b) Law Applicable in the Absence of Parties' Choice.....	209
3.5. Public Policy Issues.....	212
3.5.1. Public Policy in Europe (European Union and Switzerland).....	212
3.5.2. Public Policy in the United States	215
a) Recognition of Judgments	215
b) Direct Litigation	216
3.5.3. Conclusion on Public Policy	217

Nicole Mathé

Soft Law and Alternative Dispute Resolution	219
1. Introduction	221
2. Soft Law – Self-Regulation	221
2.1. Definition	221
2.2. Conceptual Elements of Soft Law Measures	223
2.2.1. Object and Purpose	223

2.2.2.	Typology	224
2.3.	Which Soft Law Measures are Employed by the I-Gaming Industry?	226
2.3.1.	Codes of Conduct	226
2.3.1.1.	Interactive Gaming Council (IGC).....	226
2.3.1.2.	Interactive Gaming, Gambling and Betting Association (iGGBA)	228
2.3.2.	Responsible Gaming Programmes	229
2.3.2.1.	Online Casinos	229
2.3.2.2.	IGC	229
2.3.2.3.	Internet Content Rating Association (ICRA).....	230
2.3.2.4.	GamCare	230
2.3.3.	Advertising Code of Practice	232
3.	Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) and Online Dispute Resolution (ODR)	232
3.1.	General	232
3.2.	Definitions.....	233
3.2.1.	ADR	233
3.2.2.	ODR	235
3.3.	Three Examples of Established ADR and ODR Systems	236
3.3.1.	ICANN	236
3.3.2.	ICC	236
3.3.3.	Eurochambres and E-Commerce.....	237
3.4.	How Are ADR and ODR Used in the I-Gaming Industry?.....	238
3.4.1.	Online Casinos	238
3.4.2.	IGC's Seal of Approval (SOA) Programme	239
4.	Conclusion and Outlook	243

Martin Sychold

	Player Protection: Addressing the Needs of Problem Gamblers and Prudent Players	247
1.	Introduction – The Importance of Protecting Persons who Gamble on Internet	249
1.1.	The Perceived Importance.....	249
1.2.	The Actual Importance.....	251
2.	Overview of Existing Models of Player Protection	253
2.1.	Australia	253
2.2.	United States Virgin Islands.....	264
2.3.	Isle of Man	269
2.4.	Antigua and Barbuda.....	271
2.5.	Belgium.....	274

2.6.	Norway	276
2.7.	United Kingdom	276
2.8.	iGGBA / GamCare Code of Practice	280
3.	Non-Problem Player Protection	286
3.1.	Consumer Protection and Transparency Guarantees in the Field of Internet Gambling	286
3.2.	Data Protection Rules and the Right to Privacy	290
4.	Problem Gambling – Preventing and Dealing with Gambling Addiction	292
4.1.	Preventative Measures	293
4.1.1.	Limits to Be Placed on Internet Gambling Operators	293
4.1.2.	Positive Steps to Be Taken by Internet Gambling Operators	295
4.1.3.	Striking Symptom of Addiction – Gambling with Borrowed Money	297
4.2.	Dealing with Gambling Addiction	298
4.2.1.	Treatment Services	299
4.2.2.	Exclusion of Gambling Addicts from Gambling Sites	299
5.	Preventing Children from Gambling – Age Verification	301
6.	Conclusions	303

Josef Skala

	Money Laundering and Internet Gambling: A Suspicious Affinity?	305
1.	Money Laundering as a Problem	307
1.1.	Definition	308
1.2.	Scope of the Problem	309
1.3.	Changing Circumstances	311
2.	Different Views on the Relative Vulnerability of Internet Gambling to Money Laundering	313
2.1.	Money Laundering as an Internet-Related Phenomenon	313
2.2.	The Viewpoint of Law Enforcement	315
2.3.	The Viewpoint of the Gaming Industry	316
2.4.	Lack of Cases	317
3.	Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering	318
3.1.	Non-Cooperative Jurisdictions	319
3.2.	Money Laundering Typologies	321
3.3.	Review of the FATF’s Forty Recommendations	322
3.4.	The Revised Forty Recommendations	329
4.	The Legal Instruments Presently in Place	331
4.1.	International Universal Level	331
4.2.	International Regional Level	333

4.2.1.	Council of Europe.....	333
4.2.2.	European Union.....	334
4.3.	National Level.....	335
4.3.1.	Australia.....	336
4.3.2.	United Kingdom.....	337
4.3.3.	Mohawk Territory of Kahnawake.....	338
4.3.4.	Isle of Man.....	340
4.3.5.	Panama.....	341
4.3.6.	St. Kitts and Nevis.....	342
4.3.7.	Antigua.....	343
5.	The Search for Global Regulation.....	346

Karen Jeanneret-Druckman

	Taxation of E-Gaming: A Brave New World?.....	349
1.	Introduction.....	351
2.	Internet Gaming Taxation Issues are Substantially Similar to Those Raised by E-Commerce.....	352
2.1.	Direct (Income) Taxes.....	353
2.1.1.	Taxation of Players on Winnings; Obligations to Withhold Taxes.....	353
2.1.2.	Taxation of Business Income.....	354
2.1.2.1.	Jurisdiction to Tax.....	354
2.1.3.	Characterization of Income.....	358
2.2.	Indirect (Consumption) Taxes.....	360
2.2.1.	The U.S. Approach.....	360
2.2.1.1.	The Internet Tax Freedom Act.....	361
2.2.1.2.	Nexus.....	362
2.2.2.	The European Approach.....	365
2.2.2.1.	The New EU Directive.....	366
3.	Is a New Type of Taxation Required?.....	369
3.1.	No New Theoretical Approach Required.....	369
3.2.	Globalization Raises Issues that Will be Difficult but Important to Resolve.....	371
3.3.	Conclusion.....	372

Lars Schlichting

Gambling Online, the Swiss Experience	373
1. Introduction	375
2. The Prohibition of Use of Electronic Communication Network for the Exploitation of Games of Chance	375
3. Infringements under the Federal Casino Act of 1998	376
3.1. Section 55 of the FGA	376
3.2. Section 56 of the FGA	376
3.3. The Application of FGA Sections 55 and 56 for the Concretisation of the Prohibition of the Use of Internet Networks	377
3.4. The Territorial Element	378
3.5. The Procedure in the Event of Infringement	378
4. Criminial Liabilities	379
4.1. Operators of Online Casinos	379
4.2. Owners of Online Casinos	380
4.3. Users	380
4.4. Providers	381
4.4.1. The Hosting Providers	381
4.4.2. Access Providers	381
4.5. Client Service (or “Helpdesk”)	383
4.6. Marketing	384
4.7. Companies Handling Transactions	384
4.8. Banks and Credit Cards	385
4.9. Links to Online Casinos	385
5. Games of Skill on the Net	386
6. Conclusion	386

Leslie Luthi, François Grize, Laurent Bucher

Technical Devices Available to National Regulators and International Operators	389
1. Client - Server Concept	391
Uniform Resource Locator (URL)	392
2. Information Processing on the Internet	392
Domain Name System (DNS)	393
3. Geographical Location	393
Dynamic Allocation of Addresses	394
Some Other Problems about Geographical Location	394

4.	Anonymity of Gamblers	395
	Verification of Identity	395
	Verification of Age	396
5.	Filtering Techniques	396
	Packet Filtering	396
	Content-Based Filtering	398
	Detection-Response Filtering	399
	General Summary on Filters	400
6.	Control Gambling Using Financial Transactions	400
7.	Controlling Game Equity	401
	Program Checks	402
	Accounting Checks	402
8.	Conclusion	402
9.	Bibliography	403

Bertil Cottier

	Postscript: From Internet Gaming Law to Cyberspace Law	405
1.	E-Gaming: An Incomplete Legal Framework	407
2.	The Reasons Behind Legislative Inertia	408
3.	Online Gaming Law: Still in the “Wait and See” Phase	410
4.	The International Dimension	410
5.	The Solution to the Conflict between Liberals and Protectionists	412
6.	The Solution to the Conflict between Liberals and Prohibitionists	413

Index	415
--------------------	------------

