

Association des Alumni et des Amis de l'Institut suisse de droit comparé

We would be glad if you were to join the Association of the Alumni and Friends of the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law to which former staff members, scholars and visitors, as well as professional partners and interested persons belong.

All members of the AiSDC will regularly be informed of the activities of the Institute as well as of legal developments in the world, in particular through the electronic publications available on the web site of the Institute, which include:

- the ISDC's Letter,
- EU News : Click & Read (droit européen)
- The E-SDC (Etudes suisses de droit comparé), containing studies of particular themes.

Moreover, should you become a member,

- you will receive the annual report of the Institute, as well as invitations to all the conferences, seminars and colloquiums organised or co-organised by the Institute,
- you will benefit from a specially reduced registration fee for certain colloquia, as well as a 20% discount on the price of the books published in the collection "Publications of the Swiss Institute of Comparative Law",
- you will also benefit from privileged and free access to the electronic collections of the Institute,
- you will be invited to the annual meeting of the Alumni and Friends of the Institute (conference followed by an aperitif),
