Istituto svizzero di diritto comparato
Swiss Institute of Comparative Law

Restricted reopening

A limited number of people will be permitted to use the library starting 29.06.2020.

To register, please carefully follow the instructions on the next page.

Priority Priority registration is only offered to researchers traveling to Switzerland for the purpose of using our library. All other registrations will be made on a first-come, first-served basis.

Way of Booking Register the desired days of the visit on the Doodle link below, noting in the message field your email address and a phone number at which they can be reached. Without this information, your reservation will not be validated.

Once your booking is accepted, you will receive an email with the entry timeslot and number of your worktable.

Reservations are available only for one set of 5 days at a time to ensure that as many users as possible have the opportunity to use the library.

5 Doodle links will be open for the 5 weeks:

- Week 1: 29.06 - 03.07: Click here
- Week 2: 06.07 - 10.07 : Click here
- Week 3: 13.07 - 17.07
- Week 4: 20.07 - 24.07
- Week 5: 27.07 - 31.07

Arrival at the Institute Opening hours: 8h-17h
 Arrivals will be scheduled with at least 5 minutes between each entry.
 Upon arrival at the ISDC, the visitor should ring the bell to be let in.
One person may enter at a time.
On the first entry, the visitor's contact information and reservation details will be recorded in an Excel file. The file will be retained for a maximum of 15 days.

Length of stay 5 days maximum, non-renewable.
 A new request may be made on the Monday following the visit to inquire if there are available seats. If there are, a one-day reservation may be offered.

For everyone's safety

Thank you for cancelling your visit if you experience the following symptoms:

- Cough or
- Sore throat or
